Festival-Academy Program Overview

- Prior to the festival there will be various workshops with various themes mentioned above.
- The workshops will be held at a high level in various group strengths. They have different entry fees and for some of the workshops the participants need to have a photo ticket. More information you can find in the announcement of the individual workshop.
- The participants should be attending at least 15 minutes before the start of the workshop.
- In case of short-term recession without alternative and no appearance the registration fees cannot be refunded.
- Therefore timely registration is absolutely necessary.
- The venues of the workshops will be announced at least when you receive the confirmation of the registration. They take place near the festival area.
- If it does not complete the minimum occupancy for each workshop, the organization can be reassign them or merge them with other similar workshops. In this case each corresponding workshop participants will be informed and may withdraw from the workshop.
- If a course cannot be held by the organization, of course the fee will be refunded.
- To register for the workshops please use the online form which you can find in the festival homepage.
